

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Efforts in Organizations that Align with CC&E's Disciplines

American Association for the Advancement of Science:

<https://www.aaas.org/news/aaas-releases-2021-diversity-equity-and-inclusion-report>

American Association of Geographers

<https://www.aag.org/diversity-inclusion-at-aag/>

American Geophysical Union

<https://www.agu.org/Learn-About-AGU/About-AGU/Diversity-and-Inclusion>

Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders in Geosciences:

<https://www.aapigeosci.org>

Association for the Science of Limnology and Oceanography:

<https://www.aslo.org/forum/diversity-equity-inclusion-justice/>

Black in Geoscience:

<https://blackingeoscience.org>

Black in Marine Science:

<https://www.blackinmarinescience.org>

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCv1x1LNaM34tYvY2eHUHAbQ>

Coastal & Estuarine Research Federation

<https://www.cerf.science/risingtides>

The Oceanography Society:

<https://tos.org/diversity>

Dr. Lauren Augustine, the Executive Director of the Gulf Research Program, National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine, testified to the House of Representatives Select Committee on the Climate Crisis on 03/09/2022. Her testimony addressed: "Confronting Climate Impacts: Federal Strategies for Equitable Adaptation and Resilience" and specifically addressed hazards in the Gulf of Mexico and their implications for underrepresented citizens. Testimony transcript:

<https://www.nationalacademies.org/ocga/testimony-before-congress/confronting-climate-impacts-federal-strategies-for-equitable-adaptation-and-resilience>, and an archived video of the proceedings: <https://climatecrisis.house.gov/committee-activity/hearings/confronting-climate-impacts-federal-strategies-equitable-adaptation-and-resilience>

NOTES:

- Latinx in the Marine Sciences has an unsecure website
- For updates to this document, please contact Junhong Liang at jliang@lsu.edu.